HR MEET 2018

Overview

With the inception of HR Meet 2008 Growth Sellers Private Limited, first came up with the idea of creating a common platform to discuss HR issues and create HR awareness in the context of Nepal. Ever since then HR Meet has continued to take place annually based on enormous feedback from participants and stakeholders. It was the sole effort of G.S. when it made the attempt to bring HR professionals together then to interact, learn, experience, and share when various keynote speakers from diverse fields contributed for the overall well being of the HR community and promoting awareness. Based on the recognition of the need of a program as such, HR Meet has been gaining momentum with increased participation and the popularity of the program continues on a steady pace. Since the year 2010, the program has been witnessing a sharp rise in the number of participants and a diverse representation from various sectors and random international participation from neighboring country India, Bangladesh, and Germany.

Growth Sellers organized this year's two-day non-residential HR Meet 2018 on March 19-20, 2018 with the theme "HR CAN CHANGE, HR CAN DRIVE!" in Hyatt Regency Kathmandu, Boudha, Nepal.

The first day of the HR Meet started with program overview followed by National Anthem. The program was inaugurated with lighting of the traditional lamp (Panas) by the Chief Guest, Mr. Tanka Prasad Bhattarai. Ms. Sujata Awale, Corporate Affairs Head, Growth Sellers Pvt. Ltd. welcomed all the participants and resource persons followed by memento distribution to all the sponsors.

Keynote speakers from diverse fields of expertise shared their valuable insights among the participants. Major resource persons of the program were Mr. NS Iyer, Former Human Resource Head, Asian Paints Ltd.; Dr. Tanaya Mishra, Managing Director Human Resource, Accenture; Mr. Sashin Joshi, Former CEO of Nabil Bank; Mr. Puneet Varshney, Managing Director, Bottlers Nepal Ltd.; Ms. Damayanthi Joshi, Head Human Resource, Nepal SBI Bank Ltd; Mr. Tekraj Sharma, Head Human Resource, KL Dugar Group; Mr. Sujan Jojju, Under Secretary Ministry of Labor and Employment; Mr. Anand Kafle, Under Secretary, Ministry of General Administration; Mr. Bijay Rajbhandary, Chairman, CE Construction; Mr. Surendra Raj Singhvi, CHRO of Ghorahi Cement; Mr. Jayan Nyachhyon, Managing Director, Himal Tents Pvt. Ltd.; Dr. Amina Singh, Assistant Professor, Kathmandu University School of Education; Mr. Sanjog Thakuri, Youth Activist and Ms. Seema Golchha, Director, Golchha Organization. The moderators were Mr. Ashish Tiwari, Principal, Ace Institute of Management; Mr. Kumar Joshi, Immediate Past President of Human Resources Society of Nepal and Ms. Sulakshena Tamrakar, Senior Human Resource Manager, Save the Children.

The objectives of HR Meet 2018 were to examine the collective effort of human resources in organization, learn the current trends and practices of HR globally and to enhance the potential of human resources to drive and be the change maker. The program was mainly focused on strengthening the HR Community and aimed at providing a common platform for HR managers and professionals in the Nepalese context. The targeted participants were HR executives and management professionals and the program was graced by a remarkable presence attendees in excess of 200 depicting the growing consciousness of HR in context of Nepal where the concept of HR still seems to be least recognized despite a global phenomenal significance.
